From High School to Apprenticeship: Panel Discussion

Panel discussion:

Apprenticeship as a career path for high school graduates

Apprenticeship Minnesota at the Department of Labor and Industry invites parents, educators, guidance counselors and school board members to participate in a panel discussion to learn how registered apprenticeship can help high school graduates attain financially and personally rewarding careers. Discussion participants will share ideas and best practices about how to effectively engage youth and parents about this rewarding career path.

Event details

- When: Wednesday, April 24, 2019, 2:30 to 4:30 p.m.
- Where: Finishing Trades Institute of the Upper Midwest, 3205 Country Drive, Suite 150, Little Canada, MN 55117
- Register: Register to attend the panel discussion.

Why apprenticeship?

Apprentices are not just training for a job, they are building a career. Through classroom instruction and on-the-job training, apprentices gain industry-specific knowledge to ensure job security in a high-demand career. Employers improve employee retention by building a motivated and highly skilled workforce while enhancing efficiency and productivity.
